8. Open Ended

70. What are the three biggest improvements your APS program has implemented in the past five years?
   1. Collaborative effort with the banking industry to create a Bankers Kit for targeted reporting and prevention of financial abuse.
   2. Statutory protections for vulnerable adults.
   3. Annual data book or report and creation of an Adult Safety and Protection Team Workgroup and Elder Abuse Workgroup which engaged community members in the cause of abuse prevention and awareness.

71. What are the three biggest challenges facing APS in your state?
   1. Obtaining medical and financial records for community investigations.
   2. Need for forensic accountants/medical practitioners.
   3. Need for available resources/funding dedicated to APS which can sustain the service we need to provide to the increasing aging population and required statutory provisions.

72. Is there anything you want to tell us about your APS Program which we failed to ask?
   Our current efforts in Oregon include design of a new office that will bring all adult abuse under one umbrella. The design goals are to create an accountable and well-supported program office that is focused on customer service and client outcomes. We are also engaging with experts in continuous quality improvement and are hopeful to move the office forward in terms of forecasting and projecting our budget needs (like other program areas) and tell the story of APS in new and innovative ways. Very exciting!
