Greetings,

Thank you for your interest and willingness to become an integral part of NAPSA by joining its Board of Directors. NAPSA, a membership organization, best serves its members and carries out its mission when led by those committed to work on behalf of APS professionals, programs, and the victims of adult and elder abuse whom they serve. As a member of NAPSA's Board, you will be one of those leaders.

This manual is intended to enhance your knowledge of NAPSA, its Board, and its operating procedures, and to provide you with the information you need to be a NAPSA Board Member.

When possible, this manual will provide direct links to the NAPSA website for further information on a specific topic. If you haven't already, you may wish to access the NAPSA website for other valuable information.

Sincerely,

Board President

Historical and Overview Information

NAPSA was formed in 1989 and incorporated in 1995 as a national non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization, with members in all 50 states. For more information please see NAPSA's history. There are a number of requirements, both legal and programmatic, that need to be in place in order to implement and sustain NAPSA's operation. The requirements include, but are not limited to:

Bylaws: Bylaws are self-imposed rules that define and regulate an organization's actions, including the size and composition of the organization's Board of Directors, the powers and responsibilities of the Board of Directors and the rules for holding meetings. For more information on NAPSA's Bylaws please click here and scroll to the bottom of the web page.

Code of Ethics: NAPSA's Code of Ethics for Adult Protective Services (APS) is prefaced by the statement that Adult Protective Services programs and staff promote safety, independence, and quality-of-life for older persons and persons with disabilities who are being mistreated or in danger of being mistreated. The Code goes on to identify the guiding values, principles, and APS practice guidelines.

Mission: NAPSA's Mission Statement communicates its purpose, the reason for its purpose, and identifies the group(s) it serves.

Policies and Procedures Manual: NAPSA's Policies and Procedures (P&P) Manual outlines NAPSA's principles and guidelines and reflects NAPSA's best practices. The P&P Manual operationalizes NAPSA's relevant Bylaws by providing in detail, the step-by-step processes to follow. To view NAPSA's Policies and Procedures (P&P) please click here and scroll to the bottom of the web page.

Strategic Plan: NAPSA's Strategic Plan is a document used to communicate its goals and objectives and the actions needed to achieve these goals and objectives. NAPSA has a three-year Strategic Plan in place and reviews it regularly to determine the need to revise and/or update the actions and/or goals and objectives.

Organizational Chart: NAPSA's organizational chart reflects a traditional hierarchical structure with ordered groupings and clear reporting lines.
