

National Adult Protective Services Association Seeking Applicants for Executive Director

The National Adult Protective Services Association (NAPSA) is a Washington D.C. based national non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization. Formed in 1989, the goal of NAPSA is to provide Adult Protective Services (APS) programs a forum for sharing information, solving problems, and improving the quality of services for victims of elder and vulnerable adult mistreatment.

NAPSA's mission is to strengthen Adult Protective Services programs in order to improve the safety and independence of older persons and adults with disabilities who are victims of abuse, neglect, self-neglect, or financial exploitation.

To fulfill its mission, NAPSA:

- Provides APS systems, agencies, and professionals with current and relevant information and support to enhance the quality, consistency, and effectiveness of APS programs across the country.
- Partners with many diverse organizations to provide a cohesive network of research, practice and policy to meet the diverse needs of the ever-changing population of vulnerable adults.
- Applies for and fulfills grant projects, and federal contracts and related requirements.
- Actively conducts national research on topics such as APS training activities, services to self-neglecting adults, and national APS data collection, as well as partnering with academic researchers on elder and vulnerable adult mistreatment studies.
- Hosts an annual conference as well as a national summit on financial exploitation, featuring nationally known and respected professionals who share their expertise on cutting-edge issues applicable to APS practice and other disciplines.
- Works to increase national awareness of elder and vulnerable adult mistreatment and needed response through education, advocacy, and congressional testimony.
