

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

27th Annual NAPSA Conference:
PROTECT|PREVENT|EMPOWER
Aug. 29-31, 2016

The Pennsylvania Department of Aging and Temple University Harrisburg are pleased to announce the National Adult Protective Services Association is coming to Philadelphia. This is a continuing legal education opportunity for Area Agency on Aging attorneys, District Attorneys, Assistant District Attorneys and Elder Law attorneys from all 67 counties of the Commonwealth.

The conference will address areas of mutual interest and interface between aging services, prosecutors and legal services in regards to cases of suspected elder abuse.

The conference will be held August 29-31, 2016 at the Loews Hotel in Philadelphia, PA.

Ethics and Substantive credits are available

Full conference attendees can earn up to 13 CLE Credits provided by the Beasley School of Law at Temple University. There is opportunity for up to 13 substantive credits and up to 6 ethics credits available. There are only 4 sessions (1.5 hours/session) that qualify for ethics credit (sessions: 102, 605, 705 and 807).

If you are interested in applying for CLE credits, you must contact the Institute on Protective Services by August 25th, 2016. You may call the Institute on Protective Services at 717-221-1689 or email richard.albrecht@temple.edu or Pamela.vierra@temple.edu

REGISTRATION: Conference information and registration is on the NAPSA website at: www.napsa-now.org/conference

